H2 - Why You May Need New Replacement Exterior Doors

There are a few indications worn-out doors will give to let you know they need to be replaced. These signs are fairly easy to spot once you know what to look for.

H3 – Outside Elements Getting In

Are you feeling drafts around your doors? Is water seeping in around your door frames? Doors that no longer keep the weather out completely often need to be replaced.

H3 – Dragging or Excessive Sounds

If you hear excessive sounds, it may mean your doors are wearing out. Another indication your doors might need to be replaced is when your doors drag when you open, close, or try to lock them.

H3- Warping or Cracking

Are your doors warping? That's a sign they may need to be replaced. If you have wooden doors that are cracking, it may be time to get an estimate for replacing them.
